

MUSIC AUSTRALIA LAUNCHES MUSIC TALKS

Music Talks is an occasional series of talks, seminars, panels and roundtables which discuss topical issues in music.

They are future focused with many geared to the independent sector. All feature expert presenters and speakers, and each targets a particular professional audience. Formats include guest speakers, panel sessions and round tables. Panel sessions include a skilled Chair with expert speakers, moderated discussion, and questions from the floor. Music Talks are free to Music Australia members with a modest charge for non-members. Many are held at Music Australia's home base at Erskineville Town Hall.

Music in the Classroom – Workshop with Richard Gill OAM

---

Techniques to enrich music in the classroom and community

Date: Wed 15th October 2014

Time: 16.00 – 18.00pm

Location: Erskineville Town Hall

Photo Jeff Busby

A session for classroom teachers and music enthusiasts. Richard will share useful techniques to enrich music in your classroom or community. Will include participatory, instructional and purely pleasurable elements, and key considerations about their learning value and benefits. This session will provide teachers and group leaders with easily learned practical techniques to apply in classroom and community settings. No music experience required. Q&A included.

Richard Gill, is one of Australia's pre-eminent and most admired conductors and an internationally respected music educator.

Tickets to the event talk are $20 with refreshments provided.

To register to attend click here.